Leave a legacy of healthy lands with us.

Supported by Wahkohtowin, the Indigenous Lands Symposium is a catalyst for Indigenous and Non-Indigenous partners to embrace innovation, collaboration, and culture within sustainable forestry.

We are Wahkohtowin Development GPI

Wahkohtowin. At its core means connectedness. Between our People, our Lands, and our Culture. We practice this concept in the form of an Indigenous owned and led modern and innovative business. We support the revitalization of cultural practices and the upholding of rights to create sustainable resource management for the benefit of our shared traditional territories, our communities, and our livelihood.

By the numbers.

Building on the SOLD OUT success of the 2025 Indigenous Lands Symposium we are looking forward to welcoming increased participation from speakers, sponsors and attendees.
